guest articles are welcome. we pay five free issues for every article.

No, you are not going out of your mind. At least this is not evidence of it. This issue is a moves-issue. This issue is supposed to be an article-issue. What are we going to do about it? Hmmm. Well, we'll make the next issue a moves-issue as normal, the next two will be article-issues. Then a small issue followed by two article-issues again. After that, we will be back on schedule. Now, since we are going to have to do two article-issues in a row twice, and they will only have one week in between, we need a lot of guest articles and other material. So if you have any ideas, write them down and mail them in. Besides, you'll get free issues. How about doing an article on how you can play in many games and still keep everything organized? The question that may have occurred to you first is: Why is this issue a moves-issue instead of an article-issue? Well, why not?

Game 73-3 had a mix-up. France sent in a build for Mar. Mar was occupied. The game-master has allowed him to correct the build to ABre. To be fair to all players, the deadline has been postponed for three weeks. Sorry. You may resubmit moves. Please remember to send all moves to Miles Smith at 9 East 10th Street, New York, N.Y. 10003. Douglas Dick is now the permanent Italy. Thanks Douglas.

We have filled a 1721 game. We have opened up another. If you want to be in it send in $2.00. Do not forget! We still want more Lindsay and The POUCH polls responses. If you send in moves for a game, send in your responses. Please.

Our economic situation is improving, but we still need quite a few more subbers. Remember, you'll get five free issues for every friend you bring in. (No, the people you bring in do not have to be friends.) Our thanks to Conrad von Metzke and Doug Beyerlein for their advice.

The POUCH is now read in California, Connecticut, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, Washington, D.C., Belgium, Canada, and England.

It is interesting to note that we are read in both Kansas Cities (Kansas and Missouri).
